Partnering with the Private Sector in Research
A Faculty-Focused Symposium

Discover the potential for funding from companies and foundations, what successful faculty at U-M and other institutions have done, and how to connect to available U-M resources.

Wednesday, May 14, 2014
8:30am
NCRC Football, Bldg 18
Seating is limited, register today.

This half-day symposium features sessions dedicated to foundation funding and funding from private industry. Short case studies will be presented, followed by moderated panel discussions. A networking lunch following the morning session will provide researchers with an opportunity to engage with groups from the U-M who specialize in building private fundraising relationships.
