Is ADDICTION a DISABILITY?

This year’s Investing in Ability events are intended to start a conversation on the biological, personal and social impact of addiction for us all.

1 7 - 8:30 p.m.
BELIEF, HOPE AND GENEROSITY IN THE WORKPLACE: HIRING INDIVIDUALS IN RECOVERY
Ari Weinzeig, Zingerman’s Ann Arbor District Library, Main Branch

8 12 p.m. (Noon)
TREATMENT OF EATING DISORDERS
Rene Dawn Rienecke Hoste, Ph.D., U-M
U-M Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library Gallery (Room 100)

13 5 - 7 p.m.
THE ANONYMOUS PEOPLE (FILM)
U-M Ross School of Business, Colloquium Room (6th level)

16 4 – 5:30 p.m.
ADDICTION 101
Mark Ilgen, Ph.D., U-M
Rackham Building, West Conference Room (4th floor)

17 Noon – 1:30 p.m.
PANEL – ADDICTION: UNDERSTAND IT, OVERCOME IT.
Danto Auditorium, U-M Cardiovascular Center

11 a.m. – 2 p.m.
SUPER SERVICE DOGS
Diag near Graduate Library and C.S. Mott Children’s Hospital

1 p.m.
ANIMAL–HUMAN BOND, A CONVERSATION AND DEMONSTRATION
U-M Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library Gallery (Room 100)

2 p.m.
GENTLE YOGA
MHealthy
U-M Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library Gallery (Room 100)

All events are FREE, locations are accessible and everyone is welcome. If you need disability accommodations to attend or participate, please contact disability@umich.edu at least 48 hours in advance.

Investing in Ability is sponsored by: U-M Council for Disability Concerns, University Human Resources, University of Michigan Health System, University Health Service

FIND MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THESE EVENTS AT ability.umich.edu/iaw