

What about faculty documents?

- Faculty members don't have blue folders, but are required to have some of the documentation.
- Credentialing information for faculty is kept with the Office of Clinical Affairs. All other documents should be kept in the department.